Find out how to make the right decisions and do the right things. It all starts with a simple trick that can make you right every time. Anyone can do it. Use this book as a guide to instruct you on how to be right in every area of your life. This advice comes straight from the hand of the Apostle Paul translated into today's English language (The Bible for a New Generation). The book of Romans comes alive with easy-to-read Bible text on the right side and comments on the left. Discussion questions are interspersed throughout the book. This is an invaluable resource for personal study and enrichment, Sunday School lessons, small group Bible studies, and helping unchurched people. A must-read for anyone interested in furthering their relationship with God. If you have ever read Romans, you have never read it or understood it like this before. Chapter titles include How to be Wrong, Three Wrong Ways to be Right, How to be Considered Right, How Abraham Became Right, The Right Results, Is it OK to Sin?, The Solution for Sin, Where did the Jews go Wrong?, The Right Way to Live, How to Treat People with Hang-ups, and The Right Future. The Bible text for this book comes from a revolutionary new Bible version, The Bible for a New Generation (It is straightforward, easy-to-understand, and in the words that you use everyday).
