The abolition of the Ghetto and the removal of mediaeval restrictions resulted in an appreciable diminution of the numbers devoted to commerce and an increase of those engaged in industries and handicrafts, whilst there was also a gradual return to agriculture both in the Old and the New World. The political emancipation of the Jews also threw open to them the liberal professions and Government service, which are attracting an increasing proportion every year, particularly in Western Europe and the United States. At the present day, therefore, it may be said that the Jews are found in all the main departments of the economic world and in most of their subsidiary branches. 1 Mishna, Pirke Aboth, ii.; Graetz, History of the Jews,...
