Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Excerpt from Training Circular: Program of Training for Headquarters Company, Sanitary Troops, Band, Trains and Military Police of an Infantry Regiment, Combined Training of a Division The circular letter issued to divisions by the adjutant general, dated August 27, 1918, covers the general points that are pertinent to the development and training of all the new divisions and allow division commanders discretion as to schedules and programs. The ultimate efficiency of a division is determined solely by the actual demonstration of its ability to maneuver and fight and not by the number of hours it has devoted to any particular drill. The programs and schedules contained herein are furnished commanders to assist them in the instruction of their command.
