

Planning the Past: Heritage Tourism and Post-colonial Politics at Port Royal (Paperback)

By A.M. Waters

Lexington Books, United States, 2006. Paperback. Book Condition: New. 223 x 150 mm. Language: English . Brand New Book  Print on Demand .Planning the Past studies the way a post-colonial society reconstructs its national history and grapples with its colonial past, specifically in Port Royal, a Jamaican village with a dramatic history of pirates, naval admirals, and earthquakes. The plans for Port Royal's heritage tourism development represent a chronological record of historical revisionism, and the fact that none of the plans has been realized reflects post-colonial social processes and national ambivalence about piratical and naval history.

Reviews

It is one of the most popular publications. We have read through and that I am sure that I will likely study again once more later on. I am just delighted to tell you that this is actually the finest publication we have read through in my individual existence and might be the best pdf for actually.

Complete guide! It's such a great study. I am quite late in starting reading this one, but better than never. It is extremely difficult to leave it before concluding, once you begin to read the book.
