

Empowerment of Scheduled Castes

By R.V.K. Naidu

2004. Hardcover. Book Condition: New. 369 Majority of the books written about upliftment, development and empowerment of the Scheduled Castes were base on field experience. This book, though based on field study, is rich in theory. One exclusive and exhaustive chapter in the book explains about empowerment issues pertaining to Scheduled Castes, up to date and in detail. Unlike many other books that concentrate only on one or two development variables, this book is a comprehensive work on education, occupation, political participation, social status and empowerment of Scheduled Castes. It is hoped that this will be of much use researchers, academicians and planners. About The Author:- Dr. R.V.K. Naidu, head the Department of Sociology, S.K. University, Anantapur as an Assistant Professor in the year 1985. At present he is Head of the Department. Engaged in research for about twenty years his areas of interest have been Sociology of Disadvantaged, Social Stratification, Social Mobility and Ethnic Studies.
